High School Equivalency Program

Young adults, ages 16—25, are working towards their high school diploma through the New Jersey Youth Corps at Project Self-Sufficiency. Classroom instruction is supplemented by community service projects, and course credits at the neighboring community college are now available. Graduates move on to college, a career or the military.

Bridges to Employing Youth

Pregnant and parenting young adults, ages 16—24, get help with parenting skills, as well as academic and counseling support, transportation, childcare, and training and certification in a variety of fields. Students can now work towards their driver’s license!

Computer Classes & Career Seminars

Family Success Center participants learn Microsoft Office applications, and attend seminars designed to enhance their workplace experience.

Connections Matter & Understanding ACEs

Families and educators meet to discuss the prevention of trauma and adverse childhood experiences while learning how caring connections can serve as a primary buffer in the negative effects of trauma. The interactive workshops cover intensive ACEs education and address its impact physical and neurological development. Participants walk away with tips and strategies for building resiliency. Presentations are offered virtually and in-person; separate workshops are available in English and in Spanish.

Help for Parents

Home Visits Help Parents of Young Children

Women who are pregnant or parenting a young child receive regular consultations from a family support worker at home or in a public place through one of the three home visitation programs offered by the Family Success Center. The visiting professionals provide support, education and counseling on health, behavioral, and self-sufficiency issues.

“Mommy Parties”

Pregnant women and mothers of young children come together to share an activity, receive valuable tips about parenting, household safety, or health and wellness at in-person gatherings on the campus or at a nearby venue.

Mobile Services Available

PSS Journey visits municipalities in Sussex, Northern Morris, and Northern Warren Counties on a rotating basis and makes pop-up appearances at local attractions. Those in need are invited to check out the free food, internet access, computer classes, and other resources available on board.

Special Mommy Party events in Hackettstown are popular!

Parenting Workshops & Discussion Groups

Workshops and discussion groups aimed at parents, caregivers, and educators help boost self-confidence, reduce stress, and teach anger management. Courses are available on site, at community locations, and online.

Legal Advice & Education

Volunteer attorneys advise individuals in need via video chat and telephone. Virtual seminars about family law, bankruptcy, elder law, and landlord-tenant issues are held regularly.
